

BUILDING Resilient Children

KINDY UPLIFT FUNDING APPROVED

The Building Resilient Children Program is an approved program for Kindy Uplift Funding. The program design engages adult learning principles and invites a collaborative approach.

The Building Resilient Children Program is delivered through a combination of online self-paced webinars and followed by live network meetings to engage professional conversation.

- What is resilience?
- Self-compassion
- Agency
- Self-regulation
- A sense of belonging

NETWORK MEETING

Network meetings will be held online and provide a virtual space for participants to connect, discuss and explore further ideas related to each of the 5 webinar topics.

- Each live network is 90 minutes
- Morning & Afternoon options available
- Registered teachers are invited to participate
